

I will go into the details of egregores and how to create one, things to keep in mind; for those that don't know what an egregore is, it is plain & simply a thoughtform, similar to a pagan God or deity. A magician can create a spirit from his own energy and this spirit will then serve as an employee, working on your behalf. He or she can give this entity a name, specialty (one or more) and so on.

The benefit of creating an egregore is that, as a magician, one can't always find an entity that appeals to Him/ her or something similar; with this kind of spirit, you can tailor it exactly to your needs. The drawback is that it will take a good while before such an entity becomes strong enough to yield tremendous results, but that process can be sped up with proper offerings. Things to keep in mind during creation:

- . It should only serve you, unless you want otherwise.
- . It should cease to exist at your physical death, unless you want otherwise.
- . Restrictions should be placed in the sense that it shouldn't hurt others in doing what you want it to do, unless you want otherwise.
- . You can assign it a seal or logo, in the traditional sense.

Here below notes taken from my own "recipe" for creating one:

Oration for creating Aurum

I hereby officially create and call you into existence, entity Aurum; you are my creation and your sole duty is to serve me as your master. These are your personifications:

- .Name: Aurum (Latin for Gold)
- .Appearance (general): Stockbroker
- .Seal: as presented
- .Attributes: Making money, bringing in money; your specialty is generating money.
- .Zodiac sign: Leo (28°)- cornucopia/ abundance.
- .Planet: Sun

Your task is to bring and make as much money for me as possible without harming anyone, including me, in any way, shape or form & me having to work for it; thereby I mean a mundane, everyday job. Other than that, use whatever means necessary. You will also notify me whenever you have done so via sleep, so through a dream. You also serve me and only me; no one else. If I were to pass away, so die, then you will stop your task and remain idle until I say otherwise. (6x)

Arise, Aurum!
Live and serve me! (6x)

Selfmade seal below:

This empowering oration is optional:

Empowering Oration

I hereby invoke you and empower you, Aurum; use these offerings that I have granted you to make yourself stronger and better adept at your attribute or specialty, which is generating money & achieving or performing the task and command I have given you, Amen. (6x)
