

I'll be doing the kabbalistic spirit of Mars today, named Bartzabel; it is said that He can raise storms which is untrue, and I can't put my finger on which grimoire He comes from. The reason for this article, like the previous one, is that He appeared too. He appears as a dark, shady looking golem with red eyes and a red glow that is subject to change.

It is said, if you look online, practically everywhere that He is Martian, but nope. Bartzabel is Jupiterian (9° in Pisces- karmic) and does possess some martian traits so I can see the association, but that's all. As mentioned just now, He works in a karmic way and His skill is money, really skilled at that. But the drawback is that He'll dull relationships with others (bonds with others will decline).

I'll close off with the fact that Bartzabel is timid, and doesn't talk a lot. When He appeared alongside Och yesterday, all He said was His name, like "Bartzabel...". Here a post about someone that has worked with Him.
